Welcome to our 68th sale, which is an online auction only, comprising over 1300 lots offering a wide range of material, concentrating on Australasia.

All Australian Colonies are represented, with strength in New South Wales, highlighted by an attractive group of 9d handpainted essays, and including Specimen overprints and a fine range of numeral cancellations and other postmarks. Some useful Tasmania includes two very rare Chalons with private perforations unpriced in the catalogue. Victoria also has some good Specimen overprints, and a fine range of high value Stamp Duties, and there is a previously unrecorded group of Beer Duties with Specimen or CANCELLED overprints.

Australian Commonwealth has complete pre-decimal collections both mint and used in superior quality, suitably lotted. The Monocolour Postage Dues, in particular, are in exceptional condition. Supplementing the complete sets of mint and used Kangaroos is a complete range of SPECIMEN overprints which includes some of the rarest sub-types of the Type C overprint. The 'OS' punctures are also largely complete except for the rarest high values. The George V issues feature a superb mint corner example of 1d Deep Red Large Multiple Wmk.

A wide range of New Zealand material, from Chalons onwards, includes many sets in exceptional condition, with strength in Pictorials, Postage Dues and the Arms Type postal fiscals.

This sale also has perhaps the finest collection of Niue extant, offered in over 200 lots. All phases of the stamps and postal history are covered, beginning with no less than 23 examples of SG 1, including three covers. Virtually all the surcharge errors are present, and there is an exceptional range of U.P.U. SPECIMEN overprints. The 1920 and 1932 Pictorial issues are very strong with impressive arrays of essays, die proofs and plate proofs.

Rest of the World includes many interesting items, and there is a fine collection of Rhodesia & Nyasaland, suitably lotted.

Best regards from

The Team at Millennium Philatelic Auctions.

88	E	c1903 Artist's Handpainted Essays (5) in Black, Grey and Chinese White for a 9d value. Two feature the coats-of-arms of the six States, two feature King Edward VII, and the fifth shows the Southern Cross. The essays are clearly drawn by the same hand as the set of five essays (two 2d, three 2½d) dated to 1903 listed by Brusden-White as E25-29 and considered to be submission for a Commonwealth uniform issue. The essays are on thin card, four 107mm x 125 and numbered 1 to 4, the fifth smaller (46mm x 105mm), the whole have been affixed together on an album page. A beautiful set, ex G.J. Hutson	$9000
